

Practice Quiz #12

Nomen: _____

Datum: _____

1. Please decline and translation the phrase illa species (species, -ei, f. - face)

Case	Latin	English
Nominative singular	illa species	that face (subj)
Genitive singular	illius speciei	of that face
Dative singular	illi speciei	to/for that face
Accusative singular	illam speciem	that face (d.o.)
Ablative singular	illā specie	-----
Case (plural)	XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX	XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX
Nominative plural	illae species	those faces (subj.)
Genitive plural	illarum specierum	of those faces
Dative plural	illis speciebus	to/for those faces
Accusative plural	illas species	those faces (d.o.)
Ablative plural	illis speciebus	-----

2. Please give the neuter forms of ille, illa, illud:

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	illud	illa
Genitive	illius	illorum
Dative	illi	illis
Accusative	illud	illa
Ablative	illo	illis

3. For the following questions, please give the correct form of ille, illa, illud that agrees with the noun form in case, gender, and number.

Your noun is: dominus, -i, m.

a. illum dominum

b. illo domino (dative singular)

c. illorum dominorum

d. illos dominos

e. illis dominis

5. Translate the following sentences correctly. Note that they include forms of ille, illa, illud.

a. "Non dormire" inquit Marcus "possum, quod milites clari sunt. Illi decedere debent".

"I can not sleep" says Marcus "because The soldiers are loud.
They/those ones/those men ought to ~~be~~ leave".

b. Manê pueri multos flores carpunt, deinde puellis illos dant. Atque, puellae dona puerorum amant.

In the morning the boys pick many flowers, and give them /those ones to the girls And, the girls like the gifts of the boys.

Vocabulary:

amo, amare, amavi - to like, love

atque - and

carpo, carpere, carpsi - to pick up, to pick

clarus, -a, -um - loud

decedo, decedere, decessi - to leave, depart debeo, debere, debui - must, to ought to deinde - then

do, dare, dedi - to give donum, -i, n. - gift

dormio, dormire, dormivi - to sleep

flos, floris, m. - flower

in - in, on + abl.

inquit - to say

Marcus, -i, m. - Marcus (a name)

manê - in the morning

miles, militis, m. - soldier multus, -a, -um - much, many novus, -a, -um - new possum, posse, potui - to be able to

puer, -i, m. - boy

puella, -ae, f. - girl

quod - because

sum, esse, fui - to be